

Aboriginal Health Conference 2021

Saturday 20 and Sunday 21 November 2021
Parmelia Hilton Perth

SPONSORSHIP AND EXHIBITION OPPORTUNITIES

Invitation

Rural Health West invites you to exhibit at the Aboriginal Health Conference 2021.

Health professionals are busy and it can be challenging finding effective ways to communicate with them. This is even truer of practitioners in the Aboriginal health space who are often located in remote locations in areas of significant need, with little downtime while at work.

The Rural Health West Aboriginal Health Conference provides organisations with a unique opportunity to interact with more than 160 health professionals.

The conference provides opportunities for delegates to talk with exhibitors away from their hectic working conditions and learn more about new products and services that help close the gap in health and life expectancy for Aboriginal people.

Attendees at the Aboriginal Health Conference are committed and passionate health professionals keen to explore new thinking and techniques.

We have a range of exhibition, sponsorship and advertising opportunities available for the Aboriginal Health Conference 2021.

We look forward to you joining us at the conference.

Tim Shackleton
Chief Executive Officer

This conference is being held on the lands of the Nyoongar people. We respectfully acknowledge these traditional owners who will be asked to welcome delegates to the conference.

OUR VISION FOR RECONCILIATION

Our vision is for healthier Aboriginal communities, achieved by working alongside Aboriginal people to ensure quality healthcare is accessible and culturally appropriate.

About the Conference

The Aboriginal Health Conference will be held at the Parmelia Hilton Perth on 20 and 21 November 2021.

Program

The Aboriginal Health Conference 2021 will provide an opportunity for rural medical and health professionals to discuss and exchange ideas on the following key issues relating to the health and wellbeing of Aboriginal communities. The conference program will have five streams:

- Mental Health
- Quality improvement – interrogating data for the benefit of Aboriginal people and their communities
- Environmental Health
- Chronic Disease with a focus on palliative care, voluntary assisted dying and end of life
- Early Intervention with a focus on child health, chest, ear and skin

Who attends

The conference attracts more than 160 delegates with a passion for Aboriginal health. Attendees at the conference will include general practitioners, specialists and health professionals involved in rural and regional Aboriginal healthcare.

“An excellent opportunity to network with rural doctors, which we are not often able to do.”

Generate new opportunities in the Aboriginal health sector

Becoming a sponsor at this conference provides a unique opportunity to promote and showcase your products and services.

The majority of delegates are from rural locations, which provides the perfect opportunity to make new contacts.

The benefits to your organisation include:

- An enhanced company profile
- Increased customer contact and business opportunities
- A unique opportunity to give delegates 'hands-on' experience with your products
- An opportunity to launch new products
- Business development

This will result in:

- Heightened awareness and an enhanced corporate and/or product profile
- Increased business potential and relationship development
- Secured business leads

Following cancellation of last year's conference, we expect strong interest from exhibitors and attendees.

We recommend that the sponsorship and exhibition application form is returned as early as possible to ensure sponsorship rights and exhibition space. A floor plan of the trade exhibition is on page 8. Organisations should note that booths are allocated to sponsors and exhibitors strictly in order of the date of receipt of the booking form and payment.

Your involvement will be featured in the final program, subject to printing deadline.
