"I am truly grateful for cmr's outstanding support and guidance throughout the process of finding a sonographer position. From the beginning, the team was professional, approachable and genuinely invested in my development. cmr's ongoing communication and encouragement made me feel supported every step of the way."

Flora, Sonographer

Creating great experiences across Australia

Have you considered taking on a locum role? Locum work gives you the unique opportunity to explore Australia, meet new people and pursue your passions in amazing locations right around the country, without sacrificing salary or career progression.

Connecting communities through healthcare

Our track record in the healthcare sector is second to none.

As the official preferred suppliers to QLD Health, SA Health and NSW Health, as well as the preferred agency for countless other healthcare organisations nationwide – we're trusted to deliver quality talent, every time.
