

Taline Chater

Taline is a partner in the Mills Oakley National Restructuring and Insolvency team and is TMA NSW committee member. She brings over 20 years' expertise in both informal and formal turnaround, debt restructuring and insolvency situations, advising various stakeholders including debtors and creditors in the mining and resources, retail, financial services, construction and property sectors. She is also experienced and known for achieving strategic settlements in complex corporate disputes and litigations.

Link: Taline Chater | Mills Oakley