

Feel New on the South Coast

Tuesday 14 May – Friday 17 May

Where the world slows down: The South Coast life is lived at a slower pace here – a general feeling of taking time appreciate what you see when the world stops a little. We can't think of a better place to disconnect than the endless curves of sand, the striking swathes of green, the oyster shacks, the cafes where local produce shines, the world-class wineries, the marine reserves, and the enchanting towns.
