- d) To the extent permitted by law, Tourism Australia's maximum aggregate liability to you arising out of or in relation to the Event shall in no circumstances exceed the amount of your Participation Fee.

12. Miscellaneous

- a) Transfer: You acknowledge that no part of the Event is transferable to any other person, and cannot be redeemed or exchanged in any manner.
- b) Representation: A Buyer can only represent the company that has applied and been accepted to attend the Event in their own right. This excludes Product Representation Companies whose nature of business is to represent more than one company.
- c) Cancellation of Event: Tourism Australia may at any time and at its discretion reduce the scope of, postpone or cancel the Event or parts of the program. Should this occur, Tourism Australia will provide as much notice as possible. In this event, you agree to discharge Tourism Australia of any liability from any claim arising out of or in connection to the cancellation of the Event.
- d) Force majeure: Tourism Australia may, in the case of a Force Majeure Event, and with as much notice as possible, cancel or postpone the Event without liability, except to issue a refund to you in line with the Cancellation of Event clause above. Force Majeure Event means: (a) an act of God, fire, lightning, earthquake, explosions, flood, subsidence or other natural disaster, insurrection or civil disorder or military operations or act of terrorism, expropriation, strikes, lock outs or other industrial disputes of any kind not relating solely to the party affected, an unforeseen act of government or entry and exit restrictions, epidemics, pandemics, quarantine, disease outbreak, currency restriction, embargo, public utility or common carrier or computer disruption due to the effects of a virus or other malicious code introduced other than through the acts or omissions of the party seeking relief; and (b) any other event which is not within the reasonable control of the party affected (which in the case of the agreement includes the reasonable control of its subcontractors), but does not include any act or omission of a party or a change in law, legislation or government policy which from time to time regulates or affects the event which has an increased cost effect on the delivery of the event.
- e) Removal and exclusion: Tourism Australia reserves the right to remove you from the Event and/or exclude your participation in the Event and any future events, without compensation to you, if in its sole discretion (a) your behaviour is or becomes inappropriate, offensive or abusive, (b) it is necessary to prevent damage to any property (c) it is necessary on medical or health and safety grounds (including possible harm or injury to any person).
- f) Applicable law: These Terms are subject to the laws of New South Wales, Australia.

COVID-19 – Conditions of participation

In registering for a TA physical event, the delegate also agrees to the following:

- COVID-19 declaration form to be completed prior to the event date
- Temperature check on arrival
- Mandatory attendance tracking
- Adherence to social distancing and hygiene protocol
- Abstaining from an event if closer to the event date the delegate develops or displays any symptoms that are similar to Covid-19 symptoms (fever, cough, sore throat and runny nose)

A delegate should not attend the event if displaying symptoms of COVID-19 or if the delegate has visited a COVID-19 hotspot prior to the event taking place.

Upon review of the information provided to Tourism Australia in the self-declaration form and/or your ability to meet the criteria outlined above, Tourism Australia reserves the right to cancel a delegate's participation at an event in order to ensure that high levels of safety are maintained for all event participants.

The delegate accepts that Tourism Australia may share the information (including personal information) in accordance with Tourism Australia's Privacy Policy (see link: <https://www.australia.com/en-us/privacy-policy.html>) in the self-declaration form with third parties for the purposes of receiving advice; these parties include an external risk advisory service.

The delegate acknowledges that if Tourism Australia cancels a delegate's participation based on the information provided in a self-declaration form and/or as the result of the delegate's failure to meet the criteria outlined above, the delegate has no right of action, claim, proceeding or demand against Tourism Australia for such cancellation.
