Shann Australia has its origins in the 1950's with the late Frank O'Shannassy selling sewing threads from the family home. His staff consisted of his wife Barbara and their nine children.

Over the course of 70 years, the company expanded its product range and the trades to which it sold. The diversification that has taken place now sees the following industries being serviced: Canvas, Window Fabrics, Marine, Furniture, Print Media, Bedding, Automotive, Footwear and Clothing.
