SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITY

The Pathways to Resilience: Fuel Management Strategies and Actions Symposium

November 17-18, 2026 • Halifax, Nova Scotia

The Event

The Pathways to Resilience: Fuel Management Strategies and Actions Symposium presented by the Canadian Interagency Forest Fire Centre (CIFFC) will take place from November 17-18, 2026, at the Marriott Harbourfront Hotel, in Halifax.

The Symposium will explore key themes including fuel management practices, Indigenous knowledge and collaboration, community engagement, operational tools and approaches, long-term fuel treatment maintenance, and opportunities to scale from individual projects to landscape-level approaches. Participants will engage in discussions on planning, implementation, research needs, and the trade-offs involved in advancing fuel management in a changing wildfire environment.

The Audience

This pan-Canadian Symposium will bring together practitioners, Indigenous partners, researchers, industry representatives, policymakers, and decision-makers from across Canada to advance a shared understanding of fuel management and opportunities to strengthen wildfire resilience.

The Opportunity

Sponsors will be offered a high-value opportunity to engage directly with a targeted audience, showcasing how your products, services, and expertise contribute to advancing fuel management and strengthen wildfire resilience.

For this Symposium, we are offering a single sponsorship tier and price point at CA$1,500, which includes:

- An opportunity to have an exhibitor table-top during the event to engage with participants and showcase your business, products, and services.
- One Sponsor/Exhibitor ticket, including access to all sessions and meals on both days.
- Logo placement on the event program and signage.
- Logo on the sponsor page of the event website.

Funds raised through sponsorship will directly support the delivery of this event and provide travel subsidies to individuals who do not have access to existing financial assistance programs to attend this Symposium.
