

2019 Western Academy of Management Doctoral Student and Jr Faculty Consortia

Doctoral Student Consortium March 6-7, 2019

Junior Faculty Consortium: March 7, 2019

The Western Academy of Management invites doctoral students and junior faculty to apply for the 2019 WAM Doctoral Student Consortium or the Junior Faculty Consortium in Rohnert Park, CA (in Sonoma County). We encourage colleagues to share this information with anyone who may be interested in applying. The consortia are free of charge. We are accepting applications to the consortia through January 15, 2019.

The Doctoral Student Consortium begins at 3pm March 6th and continues on March 7th until the opening session for WAM 2019. Attendees should be available to attend the full two days of sessions. The program is designed to enhance students' development as researchers and teachers, as well as to provide important networking opportunities including with the 2019 Ascendant Scholars and the Journal of Management Inquiry's Outstanding Scholar, Barry M. Staw (University of California, Berkeley). The Western Academy of Management is known to be a warm and welcoming group of scholars.

The Junior Faculty Consortium begins at 8 am Thursday March 7th and runs until that afternoon's WAM 2019 Opening Session. For those who will arrive on Wednesday evening and are interested in informally meeting for dinner, we will facilitate contact with others attending the Jr. Faculty Consortium. The aim of the Consortium is to develop a supportive community of scholars. The consortium will include a mix of panels, presentations, and small group discussions about research, publishing, teaching, and other career-related issues. It will provide opportunities to network with scholars including the 2019 Ascendant Scholars and the Journal of Management Inquiry's Outstanding Scholar, Barry M. Staw (University of California, Berkeley).

Application and Admission

To apply to either consortium, please submit the following:

1. a document with your name and an indication for which consortium you are applying,
2. a developmental paper which you will discuss with colleagues and faculty mentors during a research development session (see details for abstract below),
3. a statement of your current program/faculty stage,
4. a summary of your research interests (~ one paragraph), and
5. a statement on what you would like to take away from the Consortium.

Seating is limited and applications will be processed on a first-come basis.

Applications must be received by 1/19/2019. To apply for either Consortium, please send the documents above to ferraroh@seattleu.edu. Please use the subject line "Western Academy of Management Consortium Application." All the documents should be integrated in one file (.pdf or .doc).

If you have questions regarding the Doctoral Consortium, please contact the consortium organizers directly: Marion Eberly (marionb@uw.edu) and Holly Slay Ferraro (ferraroh@seattleu.edu).

Developmental Paper Guidelines:¹

- 1) Title page: On the title page, in addition to the paper's title and the names and affiliations of the authors, please also indicate whether you are attending the doctoral or junior faculty consortium.
- 2) Brief abstract (not to exceed 150 words) and four keywords. Please rank the four keywords you select in order of importance (1=most important).
- 3) Overview of research (not to exceed 1500 words), including:
 - a. Research topic
 - b. Conceptual framework
 - c. Research question
 - d. Methods
 - e. Anticipated contributions to research/practice or key findings (if research is complete)
- 4) Challenges (the area on which you would like to focus discussion) (not to exceed 250 words).
- 5) References

Your development paper submission must not exceed 1900 words (excluding title page and references).

¹ Modified from Academy of Management, Managerial and Organization Cognition Division, Cognition in the Rough guidelines.