

MAiD2024 Research Forum

Call For Abstracts – open until March 29

CAMAP is committed to supporting research that informs the MAiD experience in Canada. We showcase the depth and breadth of research in this area, with an aim to increase knowledge, improve care, and/ or inform policy.

MAiD2024 Research Forum
May 2, 2024
Ottawa, Ontario

Call for Abstracts:

We invite researchers to submit an abstract application to our upcoming Research Forum that provides an opportunity:

- To share findings from completed research or
- To share highlights from research in progress.

Format of the Research Forum:

Abstract presentations will be selected based on a peer review process. Each presenter will have 10 minutes to present, plus 5 minutes for Q&A. Those selected to present will be notified two weeks prior to the Research Forum.

Proposal Requirements:

Abstracts should be 250 words long include the following:

For completed research:

- Title
- Background
- Methods
- Results
- Discussion
- Implications for MAiD practice
- Authors and presenting authors contact information (email)

For research in progress:

- Title
- Background
- Methods
- Ethics
- Implications and dissemination
- Authors and presenting authors contact information (email)

The deadline for submissions is Friday, March 29, 2024.

Applications and any queries can be sent to coordinator@camapcanada.ca.