

Prof. Yuefen LI

Yuefen Li is currently Senior Advisor on South-South Cooperation and Development Finance of the Geneva based South Centre. She is also the United Nations Independent Expert on Debt and Human Rights. She worked in the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) from 1990 to 2014, and held various positions including Head of Debt and Development Finance Branch and Senior Economic Affairs Officer. She was guest professor of two universities in China. Earlier, she taught at the University of International Business & Economics in Beijing. She has published books, papers and articles in refereed professional journals and newspapers on issues relating to debt, development strategies, South-South cooperation, finance, trade, etc. She has contributed extensively to UNCTAD and South Centre publications and documents.