SPEAKER PROFILE

Sudhir Gota

Co-Team Leader
Asian Transport Observatory

Sudhir is an internationally recognized expert in sustainable transport, bringing over two decades of global experience to his work. As Co-team Leader of the Asian Transport Observatory (ATO)—a joint initiative of the ADB and the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank—he plays a pivotal role in shaping transport policies across Asia and the Pacific. Sudhir has also co-authored key strategies for United Nations agencies such as UNCTAD, UN Environment Program, and UNESCAP. In 2013, he received the Lee Schipper Scholarship for his contributions to sustainable mobility.
