

Mykola Martynov

The Global Fund

Mykola Martynov is an Investigations Manager at the Office of the Inspector General of the Global Fund, where he has been leading and managing investigations of grant fund misuse since 2014.

Mykola holds a degree in Law and MSc in Counter Fraud and Counter Corruption Studies. He has a robust background in law enforcement, having served for seven years with the Ukrainian National Police, focusing on corruption and money laundering investigations.

Prior to his current role, he spent seven years conducting administrative investigations with the United Nations Office of Internal Oversight Services, working in diverse locations such as Sudan, New York, and the Democratic Republic of Congo.

