

SPEAKER PROFILE

KE Seetha Ram

.....
*Fellow
Asian Development Bank Institute*

KE Seetha Ram is Fellow at the Asian Development Bank Institute, concurrently a Visiting professor at the University of Tokyo and advisor to JR East on India's high-speed rail. He is co-chair of a special interest group at the World Conference on Transport Society and a former founder of two institutes at the National University of Singapore. He has published widely on urban development, water security, sanitation, climate change, and infrastructure finance.

