

Maria Rowena M. Cham

Senior Economics Officer, EREA-ERCD
Asian Development Bank

Maria Rowena M. Cham (Wena) is a senior economics officer in the Economic Analysis and Operational Support Division (EREA) of the Economic Research and Regional Cooperation Department (ERCD) of ADB. She has over 20 years of experience in conduct of economic appraisal and has been providing advisory support to ADB's regional departments in project economic analysis, mainly in the transport sector. She was part of the team that updated ADB's Guidelines for the Economic Analysis of Projects in 2017 and conducts the economic analysis training programs for ADB staff as well as for ADB DMCs. She is the project implementation specialist of TA subprojects under EREA's Cluster TAs on Country Diagnostic Studies in Selected DMCs; Economic Diagnostic Studies in Asia and the Pacific; and Strengthening Conduct of Economic Appraisal for Program and Projects in DMCs. She worked at the National Economic and Development Authority and Power Sector Assets and Liabilities Management Corporation in the Philippines. She co-authored chapters in several country diagnostic studies published by ADB and published journal articles on the Philippine economy. She has a bachelor's degree in business economics and master's in economics from the University of the Philippines.

