

Sanwoo Kim

International Fund for Agricultural Development

Mr Kim has about 30 years of professional experience mainly leading Administrative and Criminal Investigations with International and National organisations. He is working with the International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD), where he heads the Investigation Section of the Office of the Audit and Oversight. He previously worked with the World Food Programme (WFP), the United Nations Office of Internal Oversight Services (OIOS), and the International Criminal Court (ICC).

Before his UN experience, Mr Kim was Detective Chief Inspector for the Korean National Police Agency. Mr Kim holds LLM with Merit from the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE) as a Chevening Scholar and Post Graduate Diplomas in Law and in Legal Practice at BPP Law School, London. He has served as the Coordinator of the United Nations Representatives of Investigation Services (UNRIS) for the last 2 years.

