

Nadine Kolloczek

European Anti-Fraud Office

Nadine Kolloczek, LL.M. CFE is an experienced Lead Investigator of the European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF). A lawyer and banker by trade, she originally started out as international lawyer for competition law, moved on to being the legal adviser for Europe of a global US based insurance company and briefly worked for a Member of the European Parliament, before deciding to settle on a career in the European institutions. At the European Anti-Fraud Office, also called OLAF.

Over the years, Nadine specialized in international and internal investigations, as well as data protection. Nadine currently is the Deputy Head of Unit in OLAF's International Investigations Unit, where a main focus of her work is cooperation in international investigations.

