

Christine Youssef

United Nations Development Programme

Christine Youssef has more than 24 years of combined criminal and administrative investigation experience. Since August 2022, Christine has been serving as an Investigations Advisor/Head of the Information and Analysis Team with the Investigations Section, Office of Audit and Investigations (OAI), UNDP. Prior to that, she served as an Investigations Specialist/Head of the Sexual Misconduct Team with OAI during which she represented OAI on various Taskforces including the UNDP Taskforce for sexual misconduct and UNDP on UN Interagency initiatives related to sexual misconduct matters.

Christine joined OAI in August 2018 from the UNRWA Investigations Division, Amman Jordan, where she served for four years as a Senior Investigator working primarily on investigations including sexual misconduct, fraud, retaliation, and other misconduct.

Prior to this, Christine served with the New South Wales Police Force in Australia as a Detective where she specialized in major crime and counter terrorism. Christine also held investigation positions with the Office of the Prosecutor, Special Tribunal for Lebanon, as well as with the World Food Programme as the Syria Emergency focal point.

