

Jacqueline Bell

Asian Development Bank

Jacqueline Bell is a trusted and seasoned administrative investigation expert with experience in handling complex cases of staff and workplace misconduct. She has professional qualifications as a Chartered Accountant, Fraud Examiner, and SEAH Investigator. She conducts thorough and impartial investigations, ensuring all parties involved are treated with respect and fairness. She is experienced in policy development and implementation towards preventing and addressing misconduct and harassment in the workplace and supports institutional efforts to the same end.

In her current role, Jacqueline leads investigations on all aspects of alleged staff misconduct, supports institutional efforts to advocate for a workplace culture that prioritizes accountability, respect, and meaningfully address alleged misconduct in its associated activities.

