SPEAKER PROFILE

Kanzo Nakai

Director
Transport Sector Office
Asian Development Bank

Kanzo Nakai is Director for Smart Mobility Team in Transport Sector Group in ADB. He joined ADB in 2011, and has delivered many transport projects, including metro, urban expressway with electric toll collection, and civil aviation sector reform. Before joining ADB, he worked for Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) and Japan Bank for International Cooperation (JBIC), and supported various types of infrastructure projects such as subways, international airports, border bridges, water supply, and power generations. He started his career with Ministry of Construction, the Government of Japan, where he was involved in suburban railway development with transit-oriented-development concept, and urban housing and town development.

Kanzo has master's degrees in international development policy from Duke University and Economics from University of Essex, and a bachelor's degree in law from Kyoto University.
