

Anna Pinto Hebert

The World Bank Group

Anna Pinto Hebert is Senior Operations Officer in the Preventive Services Unit of the World Bank's Integrity Vice Presidency (INT) who manages this unit's anti-corruption and prevention portfolio for two regions, South Asia and East Asia and the Pacific. She advises on anti-corruption measures related to various practices and sectors including infrastructure, urban, water, agriculture, energy, health, and social sectors, as well as global thematic areas such as public-private partnerships. Her work has covered important clients of the Bank including India, China, Viet Nam, Bangladesh, Nepal, Indonesia, Pakistan, Philippines, Afghanistan, etc.

She previously worked in the Operations Policy Vice Presidency, and in Eastern Europe and Central Asia. She was also stationed in the World Bank's Delhi Office, serving as the coordinator for the India Program Action Plan on Anti-Corruption and on integrity topics in high-value lending.

