

Romana Panait

European Union Anti-Fraud Office

Romana Panait is specialised in criminal law, anti-fraud matters, and investigations. She has been working in OLAF (European Union Anti-Fraud Office) for the past ten years and is currently Acting Head of the OLAF intake unit “Operations and Investigations Selection”; previously she was lawyer at the Court of Justice of the European Union and prosecutor in Bucharest, Romania.

Romana holds a PhD in Comparative Criminal Law from the Panthéon-Sorbonne University in Paris. She combines the discipline and rigour of a legal prosecutorial background with a mind opening academic interest and a genuine motivation to keep up with a fast-developing world.

