

SPEAKER PROFILE

Huijuan (Emily) Wang

.....
Social Consultant

Dr. Huijuan Wang (Emily) is a social development and gender specialist with over 15 years of experience supporting multilateral development banks and international organizations, including the Asian Development Bank (ADB), World Bank, AIIB, NDB, IFC, and UNDP. She has worked across more than 10 countries in transport, urban development, energy, health, and climate-related sectors, covering both sovereign and private sector operations. Emily specializes in poverty and social analysis (PSA), social inclusion, gender equality, and stakeholder engagement, with particular expertise in integrating inclusive design and implementation measures into transport projects and operations.

