

Shigeto Hiki
Deputy Commissioner (International Affairs)
National Tax Agency, Japan

Mr. Hiki has been Deputy Commissioner for International Affairs, National Tax Agency of Japan since July 2021. He participates in the international conferences (OECD, FTA and SGATAR) and serves as Competent Authority for implementing tax treaties. He joined the Ministry of Finance of Japan in 1990 and has a wide experience in the international financial and fiscal fields, including, public pension reform (1997-99), Japan-US tax treaty (2004), BEPS projects (2013-14), ASEAN+3 and APEC (2014-16). He also worked in the international organizations such as IMF(2007-2009) and OECD(2017-2020). He graduated from Tokyo University (International relations) and has MBA from ESCP-EUROPE and MS diploma of the Collège des Ingénieurs in France.