

2025 ASIAN REGIONAL FORUM ON INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT OF FOREIGN EXCHANGE RESERVES

8-10 OCTOBER | DILIJAN, ARMENIA

KATINA KIKITIS

Deputy Chief Executive Officer
Australian Office of Financial Management

Katina Kikitis was appointed Deputy Chief Executive Officer of the Australian Office of Financial Management (AOFM) in March 2025. As part of the Executive Board, she plays a key role in shaping the strategic direction of the AOFM. Her responsibilities include leading front office operations, managing stakeholder engagement, and fostering a high-performance team culture.

Katina brings a wealth of experience across financial markets, treasury operations, debt capital markets, structured financing, and sustainable finance. Prior to joining the AOFM, she spent 12 years at Lendlease, where she led teams across Australia, the UK, the US, and Asia. She also held senior leadership roles at Macquarie Group, serving for a decade as Associate Director in Group Treasury.

She holds a Master's degree in Finance, Banking, and Economics from the University of Sydney.
