President Director
Perum DAMRI

Setia N. Milatia Moemin, known as Tia, is the President Director of Perum DAMRI, a state-owned transportation company in Indonesia. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering from Universitas Indonesia, a Master's degree in Strategic Management from Azusa Pacific University, and a Doctorate in Service Management from the Faculty of Economics and Business at Trisakti University. Under her leadership, DAMRI achieved significant growth in both revenue and profit. Since her first appointment at DAMRI in 2018, the company's revenue has increased by 270% by the end of 2025, accompanied by substantial profit growth. Following the post-pandemic recovery in 2022, DAMRI also recorded stronger operational productivity. In 2023, DAMRI acquired Perum PPD, creating the largest bus company in Indonesia and the only state-owned enterprise in the land public transportation sector. She has led initiatives to expand services across Indonesia and establish cross-border routes to Sarawak, Brunei Darussalam, and Timor-Leste, while promoting innovation, sustainability, and improved public mobility services. Since 2025, she has also served as a member of the Board of Trustees of Universitas Indonesia, one of the largest and most prestigious public universities in Indonesia. Her leadership continues to strengthen DAMRI's role in supporting national connectivity and transportation development.
