

Isabelle Ginet-Kauders

International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies

Isabelle Ginet-Kauders joined the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (IFRC) in July 2020 and is IFRC's Head of Investigations. Isabelle began her career with the American Kroll Group before founding her own company early 2008 specializing in corporate investigations (fraud, corruption) and in particular, due diligence in support of the FCPA, Bribery Act and the Sapin II Law.

In 2015, Isabelle joined OSACO Group and conducted in the humanitarian sector, complex investigations as fraud, corruption, SEA and safeguarding issues, as well as training projects for both UN and INGOs throughout Europe, Africa and the Middle East.

From 2012 to 2020, she was a French Foreign Trade Advisor. Isabelle is a qualified auditor ISO 19600 Compliance and 37001 Anti-Corruption Standards. She is also a Certified Fraud Examiner - CFE and CHS Alliance qualified for SEAH.

Isabelle graduated in business law and political sciences and holds an executive MBA in corporate intelligence. She works in French, English, and Spanish.

