

Samuel Bwana

The World Bank Group

Samuel Bwana is currently the Manager of External Investigations at the Integrity Vice Presidency of the World Bank Group. In this position, Sam provides leadership, coordination, and strategic direction to various teams of professionals responsible for investigating fraud and corruption in World Bank Group financed operations in East and Southern Africa, Europe, Central Asia, East Asia and the Pacific.

Sam is a lawyer with many years of professional experience in anticorruption, governance, public administration, and fraud and corruption investigation in international development financing. He has successfully led many global initiatives that include, anticorruption strategies; multijurisdictional investigations support, policies and enabling legislation, and capacity building for client countries.

Before joining the Bank Sam held several senior positions in both public and private sectors.

