

Rohan Schaap

Asian Development Bank

Rohan Schaap is the Director, Investigations Division, Office of Anticorruption and Integrity, at the Asian Development Bank, and is responsible for managing ADB's investigation function. He has more than 30 years of professional experience in conducting complex investigations at an international level, devising institutional integrity policies, and advancing the international anti-corruption agenda.

Prior to joining the ADB in November 2021, Rohan worked for the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development where he served as the Deputy Chief Compliance Officer and Director, Investigations. In this role, he managed EBRD's investigations into suspected staff misconduct and fraud and corruption on EBRD's program. Before joining EBRD in July 2008, he was an Investigations Manager with the United Nations Development Programme. He has also been employed as a Financial Investigator with the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia (ICTY) and as a Senior Corporate Investigator (Financial Markets) with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission.

