

Taren Spearman Nwozo

Pan American Health Organization

Taren Spearman Nwozo is the Acting Chief Investigator in PAHO. Ms. Nwozo has experience in conducting investigations into alleged wrongdoing, and in training and awareness raising on investigatory and ethical matters. Ms. Nwozo has led investigations into alleged fraud, corruption, harassment, and sexual misconduct throughout Latin America and the Caribbean, and she has traveled extensively throughout the region PAHO serves.

Ms. Nwozo is a New York licensed attorney and graduate of Columbia Law School. She also holds an LL.M. from the Instituto de Empresa in Madrid.

Prior to joining PAHO, Ms. Nwozo practiced corporate law and corporate compliance in the private sector. Ms. Nwozo is a U.S. National, and she speaks Spanish and Portuguese.

Ms. Nwozo resides outside of Washington, D.C. with her husband and two children.

