SPEAKER PROFILE

Ran Wang

Chief Representative
IRU Regional Office for
East and Southeast Asia

Mr Ran WANG took up his post as the Chief Representative of IRU Regional Office for East and Southeast Asia in August 2024.

He leads IRU's activities in East and Southeast Asia and work with IRU members as well as public and private partners to advance the development of TIR services and corridors from and to China. With nearly 20 years of experience in cross-border transport, Ran Wang has an in-depth understanding of the industry and IRU's membership network in the region, the global TIR transit system, and China-Eurasia connectivity.

He started his career in customs, where he worked for 13 years. He also worked on government-enterprise cooperation and cross-border e-commerce promotion as a government affairs expert for the Alibaba Group. Ran Wang joined IRU as an external affairs manager in December 2018, before being promoted to senior adviser in 2023. During this time, he steered IRU's external relations with key partners in the region, with a special focus on advancing trade facilitation and the TIR system.

Ran Wang holds a master's degree from the Tianjin University of Finance and Economics.
