

Regine Zukas Vilaire

Food and Agriculture Organization

Regine Zukas Vilaire is currently the Head of the Operations Unit within the Investigation Branch of the Office of the Inspector General (OIG) at the Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO) in Rome, Italy.

Regine is a lawyer by training. In addition to her law degree obtained from Université Quisqueya (UNIQ) in her native Haiti, Regine holds a Diplôme d'Etudes Approfondies (DEA) Droit Privé Général from the University of Assas (Paris II) in Paris, France and an LLM from the George Washington University Law School in Washington D.C. USA.

Prior to joining OIGI, FAO in 2021, Regine worked as an investigator in the Office of Audit and Investigations (OAI) at the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) for close to 15 years.

