

Toussant Boyce

Caribbean Development Bank

Dr. Toussant Boyce is an Attorney-at-Law and the Head of the independent Office of Integrity, Compliance and Accountability (ICA) at the Caribbean Development Bank. He oversees five internal governance functions: Institutional Integrity, Compliance, Ethics, Whistleblowing and Accountability. He served as a General Counsel then Manager, Corporate Finance with the Republic Bank Group, as Finance Attorney with international financial law firm Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer New York and Special Counsel to the CBTT.

Dr. Boyce holds several academic qualifications all with Distinction/First Class including a Bachelor of Laws; Legal Education Certificate; Executive Diploma from the American Bankers Association; double Master of Laws from Harvard Law School, USA with the Prize for Best Thesis and Cambridge University, UK. He won multiple awards including as the Best Law Student, Cambridge Foundation Scholar, and Cambridge International Scholarship for his Ph.D. in International Financial Regulation. He has authored several publications on banking, finance, law, and regulation.

