

Asian Development Bank and International Monetary Fund

Virtual Roundtable on Local Currency Bond Markets | 27 April 2022

DEEPAK TANEJA

Principal Treasury Specialist
Client Solutions Division
Treasury Department
Asian Development Bank

Deepak Taneja manages capacity building and borrower outreach programs in the area of ADB's financial products, sovereign debt management and FX reserves management. He also handles major currencies hedging transactions for borrowers. He has over 35 years of experience in the field of treasury, fixed income, derivatives, risk management, and information technology and has worked in Asia-Pacific region at various levels with Citibank, Standard Chartered Bank, Bloomberg, Reuters, and Microsoft. He holds a Master's Degree in Management from Indian Institute of Management, Bangalore, and Bachelor of Technology from Indian Institute of Technology, Delhi.