

Stephanie Bovensiepen

European Investment Bank

Stephanie Bovensiepen is a Senior Investigations and Exclusion Officer at the European Investment Bank (EIB) with an extensive background in criminal justice and economic crime.

Before joining EIB, Stephanie worked for Eurojust, the European Union Agency for Criminal Justice Cooperation, where she contributed to facilitating cross-border investigations.

Stephanie's earlier career in Germany included roles as a prosecutor and judge, specializing in serious economic crime cases. Additionally, she has gained experience working at an international law firm, further enriching her expertise in legal matters.

