7 – 9 OCTOBER, HANOI, VIETNAM.

ANTHONY TIEN RUSCHPLER

Principal Treasury Specialist
Financial Policy and Planning Division
Treasury Department
Asian Development Bank

Anthony T. Ruschpler joined the Asian Development Bank (“ADB”) Treasury Department in November 2015 as a core member of the Funding Division responsible for monitoring, evaluating, and executing funding opportunities across capital markets as part of its annual borrowing program. Since March 2023, Mr. Ruschpler assumed a position in the Financial Policy and Planning Division leading the major currency Asset and Liability Management team, as well as other special initiatives such as Disaster Relief Bonds.

Prior to joining ADB, Mr. Ruschpler worked as a Senior Treasury Officer at the African Development Bank (“AfDB”) where he managed and executed its annual borrowing program, as well as spearheading the development of AfDB’s Green Bond program. He has also worked as a consultant for PIMCO’s European Advisory business and spent four years at BNP Paribas as a Debt Capital Markets coverage officer to sovereign, supranational and agency clients.

Mr. Ruschpler, a national of Germany and the United Kingdom, holds a Master of Arts from Oxford University, and a Master of Philosophy from Cambridge University. In addition to his native language of English, he is also fluent in German.
