Asian Development Bank

Nusserwan Talati is the Principal Integrity Specialist at the Asian Development Bank, where he leads investigations into fraud and corruption across Asia and the Pacific. With nearly 20 years of experience, he leads a multidisciplinary team to solve complex integrity challenges, often using AI and data analytics to enhance the efficiency of investigations. His work emphasizes practical, timely solutions to protect the organization's reputation and assets.

Before joining ADB, Nusserwan held key positions at the African Development Bank, EY, and KPMG, where he focused on financial fraud investigations, compliance, and risk management. His certifications in internal auditing, fraud examination, and financial crime prevention reflect his commitment to upholding the highest standards of integrity and accountability across his work.
