

2023 ASIAN REGIONAL FORUM ON INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT OF FOREIGN EXCHANGE RESERVES

Bali, Indonesia, 25 - 27 October 2023

GUOBO HUANG

Chief Investment Officer
CNIC Corporation

CNIC is a Chinese investment company. It was set up in Hong Kong in December 2012 to undertake global M&A and direct investments as a financial investor. It currently has equity capital of USD 16.6 billion and has invested in about 100 equity and debt investments worldwide.

As CIO since 2017, Guobo Huang is responsible for its investment operations and research.

Mr. Huang was Director General and Head of Foreign Reserve Management Department, and Vice Chairman of the Investment Committee of the State Administration of Foreign Exchange (SAFE) of China through the period 2002 to 2016, and concurrently Chief Economist of SAFE through 2008 to 2016.

In these positions, he was in charge of the investment operations of China's foreign reserves, and also participated in setting up China's Central Huijin Corporation and the China Investment Corporation (CIC).

Mr. Huang holds Ph. D from the University of Birmingham, UK, majoring in Financial Economics; Master's degree from Tsinghua University of China, majoring in Money and Banking; and Bachelor's degree from Peking University of China, majoring in Economics.