Nuwong Chollacoop

Director of Low Carbon Energy
Research Group
National Energy Technology Center
(ENTEC) in Thailand

Since graduating from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 2004, Dr. Chollacoop has worked at the National Science and Technology Development Agency (NSTDA) on transport biofuel until 2009, where he was awarded Green Talents 2009 by the Federal Ministry of Education and Research (BMBF), Germany. In 2018, his research on sustainable mobility with the Office of Transport and Traffic Policy and Planning contributed to GHG emission reduction target in the transport sector of Thailand's National Determined Contribution (NDC) for COP21 submission. He was a founding member of the Electric Vehicle Association of Thailand in 2015 and has served on a committee till now.

In October 2020, he helped establish the National Energy Technology Center (ENTEC) under NSTDA, where he served as Director of the Low Carbon Energy Research Group. His recent work with the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) on electric 2/3-wheels has resulted in the national battery swapping standard (2021) under the Thai Industrial Standard Institute (TISI).
