

Zora Colakovic

International Organization For Migration

Zora Colakovic has over 25 years of professional experience in investigations and law, including on U.S.-based criminal cases involving organized transnational crime, sexual crimes and financial crimes; international criminal investigations and legal advising for international and domestic tribunals; corporate internal investigations and UN internal/administrative investigations. As of 2017, Zora conducted misconduct investigations and provided legal and technical advice for internal investigations at the UN Multidimensional Integrated Stabilization Mission in the Central African Republic (MINUSCA). In 2019, Zora joined IOM's Office of Internal Oversight as a Senior Investigator, first in Manila and since 2021 in Geneva, where she is also currently serving as OiC Head of Quality Assurance, Policy and Legal Support.

Zora has a Master of Arts in International Geopolitics and a Juris Doctor with first-in-class distinction specialized in Criminal Justice and International Criminal and Human Rights Law. Zora is licensed both as an attorney and investigator in California and is a Certified Fraud Examiner.

