SPEAKER PROFILE

Paul Paree

Director
Rebel Group

Paul Paree is a Director at Rebel Group and a senior fund structuring expert with over 15 years of experience in infrastructure and impact investing. He specializes in designing and operationalizing blended finance vehicles, public infrastructure funds, and climate-focused investment platforms. Paul has led the structuring of major funds across Africa, Asia, and Europe, including facilities in agriculture, water, sanitation, and renewable energy. His expertise spans feasibility studies, financial modeling, governance design, and capital mobilization from MDBs, DFIs, and institutional investors. With a strong background in investment management and advisory, he combines technical rigor with strategic insight to translate policy objectives into bankable, scalable investment solutions that mobilize private capital for development impact.
