

SPEAKER PROFILE

Andri Heriawan

.....
*Senior Transport Specialist
Asian Development Bank*

Andri Heriawan is a Senior Transport Specialist at the Asian Development Bank. Starting his career in 2002 as a transport planner with Mott MacDonald Ltd, Andri worked on various high-profile projects in the UK, Singapore, and Indonesia, honing his skills in transport planning, modelling, sustainable transport, and multi-disciplinary studies in urban sector. In 2013, he joined the Asian Development Bank (ADB) as a Transport Specialist for its South-Asia Regional Department. Currently, Andri serves as the country focal for ADB's transport sector in Indonesia. He holds a Master's degree in Transport Planning from the Institute for Transport Studies, University of Leeds, UK.

