

Rachel Cocker

Asian Development Bank

Rachel Cocker is an Investigation Specialist in the Office of Anticorruption and Integrity (OAI) at the Asian Development Bank (ADB) in the Philippines. She is part of the Internal Investigations Team, focusing on integrity violations and misconduct involving ADB staff.

Prior to joining ADB, Rachel worked as an Investigator with the Independent Police Complaints Commission in London, where she investigated criminal and misconduct allegations involving police. She also investigated bankruptcy-related misconduct for the Financial Ombudsman in the UK.

Rachel's career began with the Greater Manchester Police in the UK, where she served as an Intelligence Analyst on the Firearms Intelligence Desk within the Force Investigations Bureau.

