

Asian Development Bank and International Monetary Fund

Virtual Roundtable on Local Currency Bond Markets | 27 April 2022

---

GIORGI LALIASHVILI

Head of Financial Markets
National Bank of Georgia

Mr. Laliashvili's responsibilities cover areas of portfolio management, risk management and controls, international settlements and correspondent banking relationships, domestic monetary operations and administration of CSD for government and central bank securities as well as nationwide centralized securities settlement system GSSS.

He has been working for National Bank of Georgia since 2001, where he occupied various positions as a Specialist at International Reserves Management Division, Deputy Head of Risk Management Division and Head of Macroeconomics Department. Since 2006, he has been heading the Financial Markets Department. He has been actively involved in local currency money and capital market development, including the launch of government bond issuance program back in 2009. He has been at the forefront of many reforms, including those featuring as case studies in the latest IMF/WB guidance note.

Mr. Laliashvili holds a Master's degree from Georgian State University in Banking and Finance and MA in Economics from Center for Development Economics, Williams College, USA.