SPEAKER PROFILE

Syrus Borja Gomari

CEO
Seermo

Dr. Syrus Borja Gomari is the Founder and CEO of Seermo a tech startup delivering innovative solutions for sustainable urban mobility planning and city planning and monitoring. With 11+ years of research and consulting experience and 9+ years in product development and quality assurance, Dr. Gomari has been at the forefront of mobility and city planning technologies hyperlocalized to specific city contexts. Dr. Syrus' career includes a role as a Doctoral Researcher with the BMW Group Navigation Team in Germany and consulting work on European Commission mobility research and innovation projects at Rupprecht Consult, Germany. He holds a Ph.D. in Transportation Systems Engineering from the Technical University of Munich and an M.S. in Infrastructure Planning from the University of Stuttgart (Pronounced as Shtoottgart). A licensed civil engineer, he achieved a top ranking in the 2014 Civil Engineering Licensure Exam in the Philippines and was honored as the Most Outstanding Civil Engineering Student in 2012 by the Philippine Institute of Civil Engineers.