

Michael Bushell

European Investment Bank

Michael Bushell has been the Head of the Investigations Division at the European Investment Bank (EIB) since August 2023. Before joining the EIB, he spent eight years with the United Nations World Food Programme, serving as Chief of Investigations in Nairobi, Kenya, and previously as the Investigations Team Leader in Rome, Italy.

Prior to his work with the UN, Michael worked with An Garda Síochána, the Irish National Police. He was seconded to the Criminal Assets Bureau for nine years, where his role focused on investigating the proceeds of crime and overseeing civil asset forfeiture cases.

