

2022 Asian Regional Forum on Investment Management of Foreign Exchange Reserves

26 - 27 October 2022 | Singapore

ALEXANDER KHAZARADZE

Head of Risk Management and Control Division
Financial Markets Department
National Bank of Georgia

Alexander Khazaradze has 13 years of experience in Risk management and Strategic Asset Allocation of FX reserves. The role includes Development and Implementation of new tools and methodologies for Risk Management and SAA.

Before joining the National Bank of Georgia, he holds Master's of Science in Finance degree from Boston College, and worked at State Street Bank as a Project Manager. He previously worked in Credit Risks and Compliance positions at TBC Bank.

He also holds an MBA degree from the Hult International Business School and holds Bachelor of Science degree in Economics from Georgian Technical University.