Senior Markets Development
Advisory Specialist
Asian Development Bank

Ruchika Saluja is a Senior Markets Development Advisory Specialist in the Office of Markets Development and Public–Private Partnership (OMDP) at the Asian Development Bank (ADB). She works with governments across Asia and the Pacific to develop bankable public–private partnership (PPP) projects, strengthen policy and regulatory frameworks, and mobilize private sector investment in infrastructure. More recently, her work has focused on supporting countries to access and operationalize carbon markets, including the development of enabling frameworks and market infrastructure aligned with Article 6 of the Paris Agreement and voluntary carbon markets. A Certified PPP Professional (CP3P) with over 15 years of experience in infrastructure development, she brings deep expertise in project development, transaction advisory, and innovative financing for sustainable and climate-aligned infrastructure.
