SPEAKER PROFILE

Santosh Pokharel

Principal Private Sector Development Specialist
Asian Development Bank

SANTOSH POKHAREL is a Principal Private Sector Development Specialist with ADB's South Asia Department where he leads ADB's private sector development work in the region. He has over 15 years' experience working in emerging and frontier markets in different institutional environments (multilateral banks, private sector, and academia). In ADB, he started his career in the private sector department working in trade and supply chain finance team covering different countries such as Bhutan, Bangladesh, Pakistan, Uzbekistan, and Vietnam, among others. He then worked in South Asia' Urban and Water Division and then was based in Colombo Sri Lanka with ADB's Sri Lanka Resident Mission where he was involved in, among other initiatives, ADB's emergency crisis response to the country during 2022 economic crisis. Prior to joining ADB, he was with International Finance Corporation (IFC). He has graduate degree in economics from University of Virginia and is also a Chartered Financial Analyst.