SPEAKER PROFILE

Monyrath Kov

Senior Project Officer (Infrastructure)
Asian Development Bank

Mr. Monyrath Kov is a Senior Project Officer (Infrastructure) with the Asian Development Bank (ADB), based at the Cambodia Resident Mission. He joined ADB in 2022 and is responsible for leading and supporting the preparation, implementation, and portfolio monitoring of transport and energy projects. His work in transport is centered on improving connectivity, building climate resilience, and advancing sustainable transport solutions in Cambodia.

Before joining ADB, Mr. Kov worked as a transport engineer and later as a manager with Oriental Consultants Global Co., Ltd. in Japan, where spent over 12 years involving in a wide range of transport planning, urban mobility, and logistics assignments financed by development partners across Asia, Africa, and Europe.

Mr. Kov holds a Doctor of Engineering and a Master of Engineering in Transport from Tokyo Institute of Technology, Japan, and a Diplôme d'Ingénieur in civil engineering from the Institute of Technology of Cambodia.