

Katja Eichinger

The World Bank Group

Katja Eichinger is the Manager for Internal Investigations in the World Bank Group Integrity Vice Presidency. Ms. Eichinger overlooks international fraud and corruption investigations involving World Bank Group employees and corporate vendors.

Prior to joining the World Bank Group Integrity Vice Presidency, Ms. Eichinger held positions in the United States government in investigative, litigation, and policy capacities including as Counsel for the United States Senate Select Committee on Ethics which investigates allegations of misconduct by United States Senators, officers, and employees. Ms. Eichinger also served as a litigation attorney in the United States Department of Justice Civil Tax Division and clerked for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma. Ms. Eichinger is a US-trained lawyer. She was born and raised in Germany.

